

Biography

Lina Garcia is the Senior Manager of HR Compliance and Administrative Services for Harris County Human Resources & Risk Management. She is responsible for developing and executing strategies to keep Harris County compliant with federal and state employment laws.

Prior to assuming this position, Lina worked as an employment law attorney for 15 years, 2 years with the City of Houston's Attorney's Office and 13 years with the Harris County Attorney's Office, defending employment law claims and advising human resources managers on best employment law practices. Lina holds the SPHR and SHRM-SCP certifications.

*Harris County
Human Resources & Risk Management
(713) 274-5404*

Lina.Garcia@bmd.hctx.net

Classes Currently Offered

How to Respond to TWC
Unemployment
Claims

Securing
ADA
Auxiliary
Aids and Services

How to Respond to TWC Unemployment Claims

Do you know the unemployment claims process? The importance of filing an appeal against an awarded claim? The difference between a Wage Verification and a Chargeback? Or how Harris County reimburses TWC for awarded unemployment claims? If you answered “no” to any of these questions, register to attend “TWC Walk-Through Wednesday”, where departmental managers, supervisors, and/or liaisons can gain in-depth knowledge of the best practices of handling TWC unemployment claims.

Securing ADA Auxiliary Aids and Services

In this training be empowered as an employee assisting persons with disabilities; gain knowledge of available resources; and learn how to use the appropriate forms.