Personnel Policies & Procedures Overview

The Harris County Personnel Policies and Procedures is such a valuable resource for all Harris County employees. Did you know that it includes (among other essential information): county property and electronic services policy; the complete FMLA process; how to report discrimination and harassment; the various forms of paid leave available; and what to do in emergency situations. It also contains Harris County's formal grievance procedure and contact information for ethics complaints. If you are a manager, supervisor, HR representative or just need a refresher, you will appreciate this class.
